'Non-violent actions achieve nothing.'

Do you agree with the statement "Non - violent actions achieve nothing"?

.....

Give reasons for your answer showing that you have thought about more than one point of view.

Unless there is some direct action to make people know you are serious, non-violent protests achieve nothing	Non-violent protests can gain media attention that can be helpful, for example marches	Non-violent protests can show the strength of feeling people have about an issue or principle
Religions teach about the importance of non-violence.	Non-violent protests are weak and the people causing injustice or suffering remain unaffected by them.	Non-violent actions by Martin Luther King brought success.
Most religions have some teaching about the just use of force in certain circumstances, for example the Just War.

Using 2 different colours, highlight the boxes above so that you can easily see those that agree and those that disagree with the statement, make a key so I know which colours you use are for people that agree and disagree.

Unscramble these jumbled up words, they are all from the boxes.
