

Logo development and colourways

YEAR 8 - Design and Technology Homeworking

Last week you came up with your first possible ideas for the logo and name that you are using for the café. . You are now going to make a number of small changes and explore different options including colour and layout. At the bottom of the page draw your best version and then write some notes explaining the main features of your design.

