

Shading

Shade in the boxes below. The first box should be shaded lightly. As you move on to each box they should get gradually darker until the last. The last box should be as close to black as possible.

Light  Dark

Shade in the shapes below. Think about the shape and make sure that when you shade you follow the lines of the shape. For example, when shading a circle, using circular, or rounded lines.

